

Call for papers:
12th Annual Conference on the Political Economy of International Organization (PEIO)

February 7-9, 2019, University of Salzburg and SCEUS, Austria

Submissions are invited for the twelfth annual conference on the Political Economy of International Organization. The conference will be held at the University of Salzburg and the Salzburg Centre of European Union Studies (SCEUS), on February 7-9, 2019. The conference brings together economists and political scientists to address political economy issues related to international organizations such as the World Trade Organization, United Nations, International Monetary Fund, World Bank, and European Union, and others. We also consider submissions on topics more broadly related to international organization, such as foreign aid, international agreements and international law.

Submission of Papers

Both empirical and theoretical papers will be considered. Please submit full papers via our online submission form. The deadline for submission is September 30, 2018. Decisions will be made by October 31, 2018.

Special Issue

After the conference, presenters are encouraged to submit their papers to the Review of International Organizations to be considered for a special issue that will focus on the political economy of the European Union, edited by Andreas Dür, Christoph Moser and Gabriele Spilker (Salzburg). Submission to the conference does not require submitting to the special issue.

Conference Format, Attendance, and Registration

The number of participants will be limited to about 90 to allow for in-depth discussion of each paper. Authors of accepted papers are expected to attend the entire conference. There is no conference or registration fee. Travel and accommodation are at the expense of participants.

Conference Venue

The conference will be held at the University of Salzburg, Austria. Salzburg airport connects to many international destinations via Frankfurt, Vienna and London. Other close airports are Munich and Vienna.
